ARE YOU A COMPULSIVE LIAR? FIND OUT WITH THIS EASY-TO-DO QUIZ!

1 Teacher asks why you haven't given in your homework. What do you say?
a "I accidentally left it at home, sir."
b "I haven't done it, sir."
c "Do you mind if I leave the classroom for a few days, sir?"
d "I did it, but as I was walking to school, a policeman confiscated it on the grounds that it was 'brilliant enough to incite riot, sir'."

2 Parents ask if you have tidied your room. What do you tell them?
a "Yes, Mummy and Daddy."
b "I haven't done it yet."
c "I tidied it up and then there was an earthquake and it all got mixed up again."
d "I feel it looks more artistic in its current state."

3 Your father asks you if you've washed the car. What is your reply?
a Yes, it's spotless, father.
b No, I was asleep.
c Yes, but unusual sun-spot activity has made it appear filthy again.
d What car? You never said that we had a car.

4 You are in court accused of fraud. How do you plead?
a Not guilty.
b Possibly guilty.
c On your hands and knees.
d Not guilty because you were on a planet in a negative universe at the time.

HOW DID YOU SCORE?

MOSTLY a s:
I'm surprised you bothered doing this quiz, as you always tell the truth and you know you do, you boring smug little so-and-so.

MOSTLY b s:
You're not a compulsive liar, but a compulsive layout. Pull your socks up, if you can raise the energy!

MOSTLY c s:
You are a liar, but not a brilliant one. Try a career in politics or journalism.

MOSTLY d s:
You are probably thinking I'm going to say you're the world's greatest liar, but I'm not! If you were a great liar, you would have answered all [a]s, and pretended not to be a liar!
